25th ANNIVERSARY

SCOOP

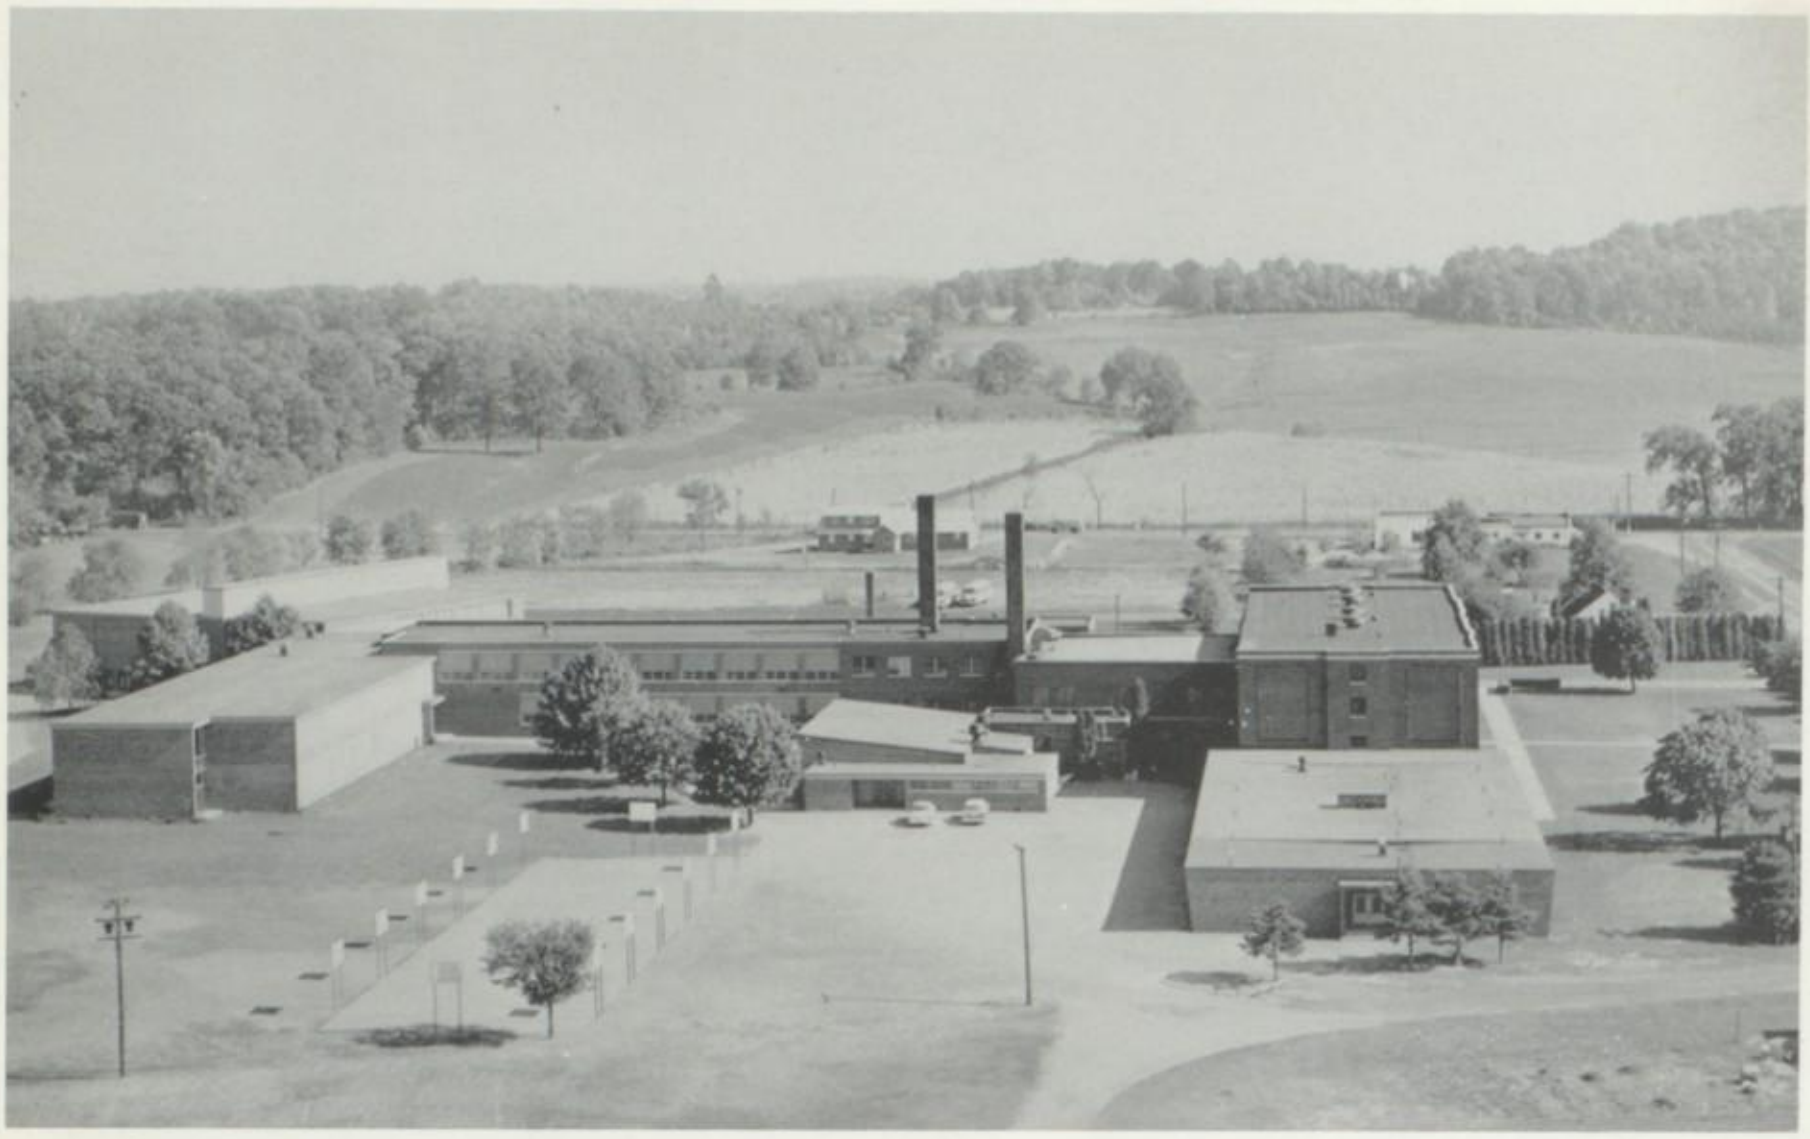
1963 Scoop



This aerial view is evidence of the many changes that have taken place at Jackson during the past quarter of a century.

FOREWORD

In 1939 the parent edition of the SCOOP was published. Now, a quarter of a century later, the newest member of the annual family has been edited.

Although this yearbook is presented in a new format, it will, however, have for many persons the characteristics of an old friend. For the past twenty-five years each successive publication has pictorially recorded the events of that year. In general, this book is arranged to stress greater emphasis on the current year, however, the inclusion of material from the past two and one-half decades plays a major role. Throughout these pages we hope to restore to many hearts and minds a few memorable experiences at Jackson High. At the same time we strive to impress upon the student of today that these high school years are his threshold years, and after having played an influential part in directing the course of his life, will, in time, be among his "moments to remember."

With this in mind, the annual staff presents for your viewing the twenty-fifth edition of the yearbook, SCOOP.

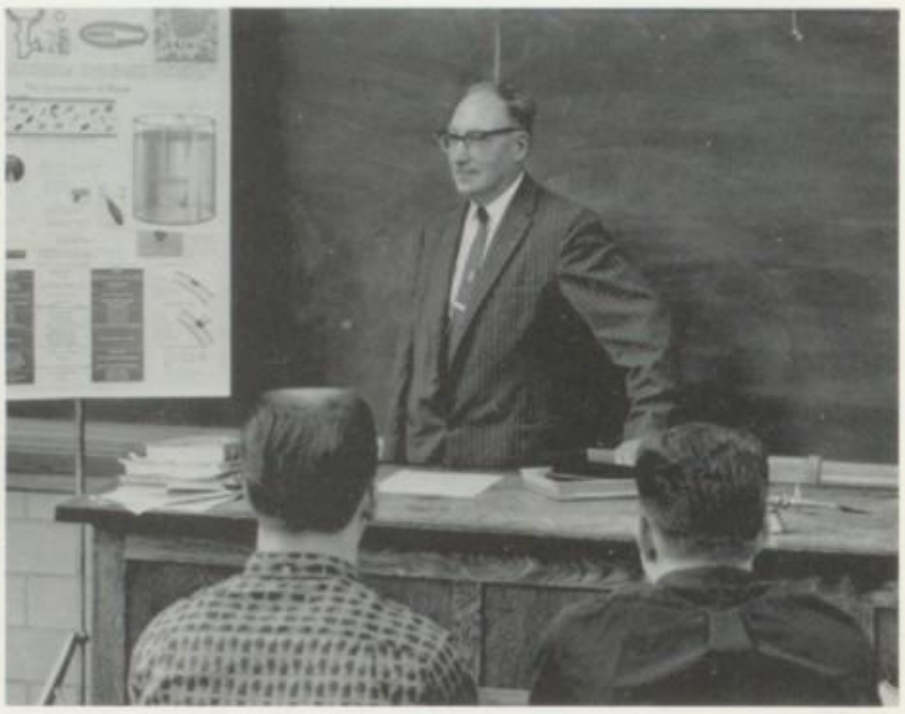
Principal and Pedagogue

Before becoming principal, Mr. Lawrence taught history.

Mr. Lawrence advises one of the senior students on her plans for the future.



Mr. Ramga, one of our biology teachers, explains the circulation of the blood.

Mr. Ramga still advises the annual staff just as he did in 1939.

Co-Dedication

MR. PRESTON LAWRENCE

This year we, the annual staff, dedicate the 1963 Scoop to Mr. Preston Lawrence. He has served Jackson faithfully in various capacities since 1931. He is currently in his twenty-eighth year as high school principal.

MR. CECIL RAMGA

We would also like to dedicate the 1963 Scoop to our advisor, Mr. Cecil Ramga. He has executed two main services in the past twenty-five years. He has been the advisor of the yearbook staff and he has taught various classes.

Progress Is Our Most

The buses used in 1939 have greatly changed from those we are currently using.

Not only the kitchen, but also the menu has changed during the past twenty-five years.

Important Product

The band now has close to one hundred members as compared to sixty in 1940.

One thing hasn't changed. Cheerleaders still lead our teams on to victory.

Like many other things, the band, cheerleaders, and the football team have changed during the past twenty-five years. The band now develops a theme and formations during half-time shows.

To many of us, boy cheerleaders are a thing of the past.

The football teams have increased in size and in the number of victories. In 1939 the team compiled a perfect record of no victories. This year's record was much better—8 wins, 1 loss, and 1 tie.

FACULTY AND ADMINISTRATION

Although teaching methods have changed during the past twenty-five years, the willingness and unselfishness of our faculty and administrators have remained constant.

The students graduating from Jackson represent the collaborative efforts of this fine staff of men and women to whom our appreciation and gratitude is not often enough expressed.

With these pictures we hope to rekindle their subconscious to memories of days past and to arouse in them the desire to continue doing such rewarding work.

Administration Sets Goals and Plans

MR. G. L. RADER, EXECUTIVE HEAD

Mr. G. L. Rader, executive head of the Jackson Township Public Schools, is shown reviewing the agenda for a future meeting. In order to meet the demands of our growing school population, many new duties have fallen upon his shoulders. Mr. Rader is responsible for seeing that the Jackson schools are run smoothly and efficiently, and his interest in the student body has won for him the respect and admiration of us all.

MR. PRESTON LAWRENCE
HIGH SCHOOL PRINCIPAL

Completing his twenty-seventh year as principal, Mr. Lawrence is the overseer of all happenings within the high school itself. Arranging schedules for students, the role of disciplinarian, and observing classes are just a few of his numerous duties. Mr. Lawrence's years of devoted service have resulted in a smoothly operating high school.

NUTRITIONAL STAFF:
Evelyn Brumbaugh, Margaret Seifert, Louisabelle Williams, Lois Weister, Emma Stamman, Helen Bright, June Thompson, Laura Puente, Ethel Culler, Virginia Swart, Supervisor.

Balanced meals are the chief concern of these ladies. Although many of these women are mothers of Jackson students, they spend the greater part of the day preparing hot lunches for the students. These queens of the culinary art work in a clean, sanitary kitchen turning out nutritious meals. The students at Jackson appreciate their fine work.

The clean, pleasant atmosphere at Jackson can be accredited to the custodians. These nine men are responsible for the condition of the buildings and grounds. Most students don't realize the time and work spent by these men in the maintenance of the building. More consideration and appreciation should be given to these men.

CLASSES

Within the past two and one-half decades many personable students have passed through these hallowed halls. Their decided marks of distinction still remain either with the teaching staff or with their classmates.

No matter how much we proclaimed our dislike for homework, tests, report cards, and discipline, the day of graduation brings with it a ring of finality and we quickly review our high school days with a wave of nostalgia.

Efficient Officers and Advisors Led Us

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS: Elaine Martin, Vice President; Larry Whitacre, Treasurer; Ronnie Emhoff, President; Jeanne Halter, Secretary.

Entering the halls of Jackson as freshmen, the Class of 1963 quickly became acquainted with high school life. Remember our freshman year? A little disorganized perhaps but fun. Joining various activities, selling stationery and ordering our class jackets, were the highlights of our first year.

Bake sales, car washes and other projects characterized our sophomore year, along with the thrill of receiving our class rings.

During our junior year we worked even harder to show the seniors how beautiful a prom could be—and we certainly showed them! On May 18 the ballroom of the Onesto Hotel was transformed for a stroll down "Primrose Lane."

At last the long awaited year arrived. During that year we had many things to look forward to—including the senior prom, "Winter in the Alps," held at the Sachsenheim Club on December 29. And finally, Commencement. Whether, after graduation, we pursue our education or secure an occupation, we will carry with us the many happy memories of our high school years.

The Senior Class wishes to express its sincere gratitude to our advisors, Mrs. Lininger, Mrs. Baxter, and Mr. Berg. With patience and understanding they have guided us through our high school years.

Present Perfect Picture of Our Senior Year

Four of our more popular senior girls, Ernie Baich, Ben Prato, Jim Wheeler, and Fred Puente, dance to a song sung by Jack Hickle.

Karen Baird demonstrates to the second period physics class the use of a Van de Graff generator.

A few of the students who attended the Senior dance, "The Monster Mash," model their costumes.

Elaine Martin reads a humorous selection at the Thanksgiving assembly.

Mr. Matthews, Fred Brumbaugh, Jan Boebinger, and Marty Davis are caught coming DOWN the UP stairs by our roving cameraman.

STUDENT LIFE

If a poll were taken, most of the students, both of today and of twenty-five years ago, would probably agree that a very important part of life at Jackson includes rallies, dances, assemblies, plays, and anything else that helps enliven the daily routine.

Looking back over these activities, one's student life will have offered some of the fondest memories of their entire school days.

We Could Have Danced All Night

By the looks of things, the seniors and their dates had a very good time at the prom.

Senior Prom

This year's senior prom, with the theme "Winter in the Alps," was held at the Sachsenheim Club on December 29th. The seniors and their dates had a wonderful time dancing from eight until twelve to the music of Duane Haines and his orchestra. A smorgasbord dinner added to the enjoyment of the evening.

Following the dance, the movie "If a Man Answers" was shown at the Weslin Theater. The seniors then went bowling at Lincoln-Way Lanes and were served coffee and doughnuts.

Not only the students enjoyed the dinner at the Sachsenheim Club! Mr. and Mrs. Sweterlitsch, Mr. and Mrs. Davidson, and Mr. and Mrs. Lininger attended the Senior Prom.

All Class Play

"Ask Any Girl," the first all class play ever presented at Jackson, was held by the Belles and Beaus on November 16 and 17. The story tells of Meg, a sweet girl from a small town, who falls in love with a devil-may-care head of a great New York advertising agency. In order to catch him, Meg turns herself into a composite girl—taking the characteristic he likes from each of his many girlfriends. She is soon being avidly sought by him, but now she's fallen in love with the man she asked to help plan her campaign. Since these two men are brothers, it's confusing—but very funny.

The play was skillfully directed by Miss Rutter and her assistant Judi Garratt.

ORGANIZATIONS

Throughout any span of time changes are inevitable. It has been particularly noticeable in our extra-curricular activities. In the early forties, Jackson sponsored such clubs as Future Farmers of America, a Hobby Club, and a Photography Club, in addition to choir, band, plays, etc.

These activities were expanded to include a National Honor Society, Language Clubs, a Student Council and many more.

The ultimate goal of all organiations has remained the same—to encourage youth in developing leadership, acquiring fellowship, and building character.

ROW 3: Bonnie Haer, Bill Day, Paul Gerber, Elaine Martin, Brad Harter, Buzz Ellis, Ronnie Emhoff, Doug Wallenhurst, Chas Boebinger.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council is an organization of students elected by students, to serve as official representatives in matters of concern to the entire school.

It attempts to provide a medium through which student opinion may be heard and a forum for consideration of common school problems.

One of its major projects this year was a township-wide collection of clothes for the Save the Children Federation.

Ronnie Emhoff, Vice President, discusses with other Student Council members whether or not there should be locker inspection.

Journalistic Achievements

QUILL AND SCROLL

Truth, dependability, leadership, and initiative are four qualities Quill and Scroll members must uphold. This organization is an International Honorary Society for High School Journalists who are in the upper one third of their class scholastically, a junior or senior, and a member of the Bear Facts or Annual Staff. New members are chosen on the basis of their accomplishments in journalism and their grade average.

The society's purpose is to encourage and reward individual achievement in journalism.

Howard Rennecker gives a report for some of the Quill and Scroll members.

National Honor Society

Promoting an enthusiasm for scholarship and encouraging students to further their education are two of the main objectives of the National Honor Society. Students must maintain a three point average to be eligible for membership. The members, who must excel in leadership, character, scholarship, and service to their school, are selected by the faculty.

Thirty-five members were inducted into the society on February 26, 1963, receiving the highest academic honor obtainable at Jackson Memorial High School.

The new National Honor Society members listen intently as Mr. Rader discusses the principles of the Society

LATIN CLUBS

Latin students at Jackson High School are new members of a national organization, the Junior Classical League, the purpose of which is to promote a more thorough knowledge and a better understanding of Roman life, history and literature.

The major projects this year were the distribution of food to worthy families at Thanksgiving and Christmas and the Latin Banquet held in March. In addition, Mr. Karrenbauer's freshman Latin classes, the Freshman Classics Fraternity, purchased some volumes of the Loeb Classical Library with the proceeds from a dance held by them on March 23.

The Latin IV students don't mind missing an hour of translating to pack boxes with food for needy families at Christmas.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Clubs endeavor to give French students a working knowledge of the language. Selling light bulbs was the project of the French I Club. A portion of the money was used to help needy families in the area. The French II Club held a bake sale during the high school open house. The money received from each project was used to sponsor their individual social events.

At the French II Club bake sale, Jim Leonard and Susie Grant display their wares as Jim Ollenhausen grins over the profit.

LIBRARY

Jackson's Library Club is a member of the Ohio Student Library Association. The members of the club serve the school as library assistants, and meet to discuss the various phases of library science. The annual O.S.L.A. conference gives the members of the club the chance to meet with other student librarians and to learn about career opportunities in this field. Visiting colleges and public libraries also acquaints them with the field of library science.

NATIONAL FORENSIC LEAGUE

The National Forensic League is a club whose purpose is to help students to become better speakers. Jackson's NFL members, advised by Mrs. Howard, participate in speech and debate practice tournaments almost every Saturday. There are also district contests where students qualify for the state and national tournaments.

Elaine Martin presides over a lively meeting of the National Forensic League.

JACKSON MEMORIAL ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

Working together with the adult Booster Club, the J.M.A.A. helps stimulate school spirit through the sale of pom-poms, ribbons, and tickets to the games. They have been largely responsible for "color day." With the assistance of Mr. Matthews, their advisor, the club sponsors both the football and basketball banquets and the football homecoming.

"Buy a ribbon and support the team" is the theme of Peggy McCort, Deanna Stephen, and Jim Harold, members of the J.M.A.A., who succeeded in selling a ribbon to Mike Ricker.

FUTURE TEACHERS OF AMERICA

The Jackson Chapter of Future Teachers of America seeks to provide students with the opportunity to learn about various fields of education and to acquaint these students with the qualities which are the foundations of successful teaching.

Among the programs included in the monthly meetings have been a panel of grade school teachers, a program devoted to college life, and a trip to Mount Union College. The club also sponsored an FTA Day on which members assumed the duties of the high school teachers and administration for the day. The Future Teachers ended the school year with their annual banquet where various members were awarded their pins and the new officers were introduced.

Carol Pritz, President of FTA, disucsses preparation for the group trip to Mount Union College.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

This year the Future Homemakers of America Club, advised by Mrs. Lininger, is composed of girls who are taking first year home economics. Among the projects they sponsored were the preparation of homemade cookies, a basket of food for a needy family at Christmastime, Christmas caroling at a nearby nursing home, and a bowling party.

Barb Lance, Joyce Powell, Sally Stonebrook, and Linda Scroggs enjoy one of the more appetizing projects in Home Ec.

FUTURE NURSES OF AMERICA

This organization consists of students who are interested in some phase of medical work. Through programs including tours, films, and lectures, the members become acquainted with the many fields that are available in medicine. They also learn of the responsibilities and opportunities that go along with them.

Under the guidance of Miss McCoy the club has held meetings each month. This year seniors who have taken part in the club for three years receivedpins.

Y-TEENS

The Jackson Y-Teens is the largest Y-Teen group under the Massillon YWCA. The group attempts to bring to the members programs and speakers of interest to the group. The kick-off meeting for the 1962-63 year brought Mrs. Jane Skinner of the Jane Skinner Academy to talk to the girls about good grooming. Through their projects and their programs the organization endeavors to guide the members into becoming young women.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The purposes of G.A.A. are to promote an interest in sports among high school girls, to develop good sportsmanship, and to provide an opportunity for participation in activities regardless of skill and experience.

The club, with a new advisor, Miss Clark, held meetings twice a month. Basketball, volleyball, and battleball were the main activities.

Basketball seems to be the favorite sport of these GAA members.

FUTURE BUSINESS LEADERS OF AMERICA

The commercial club of Jackson Memorial High School was newly organized this year. A constitution was written and adopted by the organization in its first meeting. Any junior or senior student in the commercial department of Jackson High School is automatically a member.

Among other activities of this past season, there have been a series of speakers who have been sufficiently interested to come and to speak to our club on subjects especially designed to interest and aid the commercial student. The speakers were furnished as a special favor of National Office Managers Association.

The FBLA sincerely hopes to further interest in the commercial field, and to assist all students who have chosen that field to prepare well for their future. It is also a desire of this organization to support its Alma Mater—Jackson High School—in all of Her interests and activities.

BELLES AND BEAUS

The aim of the club is to not only make actors but to offer opportunities for the members to develop poise, to acquire artistic appreciation, and to express themselves creatively. Through the activities the members should come to appreciate and understand human nature and life situations, learned by doing rather than by studying. The club aims at creating and developing such activities as those of acting, scenery building and designing, working on lighting and technical aspects, making-up characters, advertising and selling, and even directing.

JOURNALISM

The Journalism Club, organized early this year, is made up primarily of members of the journalism class and newspaper staff. A limited number of freshmen who are interested in journalism are also members.

The club has two purposes. The first is to help raise funds for publishing the school newspaper and defray part of the expenses of students attending journalism clinics. The second is to visit newspaper plants in the area to help students better understand the opportunities and problems in a journalistic career.

SCOOP

This is the 25th anniversary of the SCOOP, and it has been used as the book's theme.

In June all the SCOOP Staff members attended the Ohio University Journalism Workshop to help them in the over-all planning of the book. Some of the various jobs of the Scoop Staff are choosing a theme, deciding upon a cover, taking pictures; writing copy, and drawing up pages.

Each summer we have our book rated and criticized by judges. We have tried to follow their helpful suggestions to produce a yearbook with which the entire student body will be pleased.

CHOIR

The Jackson High Choir, under the direction of Mr. Lewis, has worked hard to gain its reputation for excellent vocal music.

In addition to performances at the Thanksgiving, Christmas, and Easter assemblies, the Girls' Glee Club, the mixed choir, and the "Jacks 'n' Jills" put in much time for special activities. In December, the mixed choir and the "Jacks 'n' Jills" were privileged to sing on the Paige Palmer Show on WEWS TV. On December 16, the combined choirs sang Christmas portions of the "Messiah." The musical "Li'l Abner" was presented in March. Throughout the year the "Jacks 'n' Jills" sang at various church and social meetings.

BAND

This year the band has a total enrollment of one hundred and five. In August the band played in the All-American Soap Box Derby at Akron and in September at the Stark County Fair. During the month of August and football season, the band does a lot of hard work preparing for the colorful half-time shows. At the end of football season they began preparing for the annual Spring Concert. Basketball rallies, the County Music Festival and various Music Clinics are among many of their activities. Twelve band members placed in select bands and several earned top ratings at the band contests this year.

ATHLETICS

Within twenty-five years sports have expanded from basketball and football to include wrestling, track, baseball, and golf. Even the girls are coming into their own in the fields of basketball and golf.

Through athletics we can develop physically as well as mentally. Sportsmanship, and cooperation are assets gained which can be applied to other walks of life.

Close scores, the romps, and even the losses round out the memories of school which are carried through life.

GRID HISTORY

Football took on a new look at Jackson this year. Included in this "new look" were a new head coach, Mr. Andy Steve, new staff, and new bleachers.

Speed and agility were stressed to make up for the lack of size, which the Polar Bears meet in every outing.

The success of the team rested on desire—speed—intelligence which was evident in the 8-1-1 record, one of the school's finest.

The ability to rebound after the defeat to Canton South showed the desire that the members had.

The loss of twenty-five seniors will put an added burden for next year's squad.

We of the "Scoop" staff would like to wish next year's squad as much success as this year's.

Action-Packed Moments

This is the type of view gotten from the press box during the North Canton game.

Tim Rummins and Doug Wallenhurst move into tackle a Canton South player.

Howard Rennecker is heading for trouble from some Northwest Indians.

Bruce Henze tries to gain a few yards, but the Northwest Indians have other ideas.

Rich Conaway reaches for a pass as a Canton South gridder tries to prevent him from catching it.

These Action Shots Show

The enthusiastic crowd waits impatiently for the game to begin.

The players shake hands . . .

. . . And the game begins.

A victory means a great deal to Coach Steve.

Bob Eckenrode sweeps around right end to evade some would-be tacklers.

The Enthusiasm of Jackson

Howard Rennecker seems to be getting the brunt of the punishment.

Tim Rummins sweeps around the end to gain some yardage.

As Jim Roach dives for a tackle, Frank Dugan of Canton South does some sidestepping.

The "cage" season at Jackson High this year was highlighted with some of the best play in the school's history.

A "first" in Polar Bear basketball was the unprecedented all-senior squad.

Attendance records were shattered this year as the Polar Bears played some of the outstanding teams in the area.

Ernie Baich won the Class "AA" scoring title this season with 188 points in twelve games.

The team had a few disappointing setbacks this season but managed to finish with a 9-9 record.

At this time the "Scoop" would like to wish next year's team success throughout the season.

This year the Polar Bear wrestling team competed in their first full scale wrestling season. For an inexperienced and young team, they were highly successful. The Bears ended up with 8 victories against 4 defeats in regular season action.

This year's team was spotted with underclassmen in 7 of the 11 weight classes. This fact gives high hopes to the grapplers of the future in Jackson's newest and fastest growing sport.

The season's highlight came as 5 of Jackson's 10 entries in the sectional tournament at Canton's field house advanced all the way to the quarterly finals before being defeated.

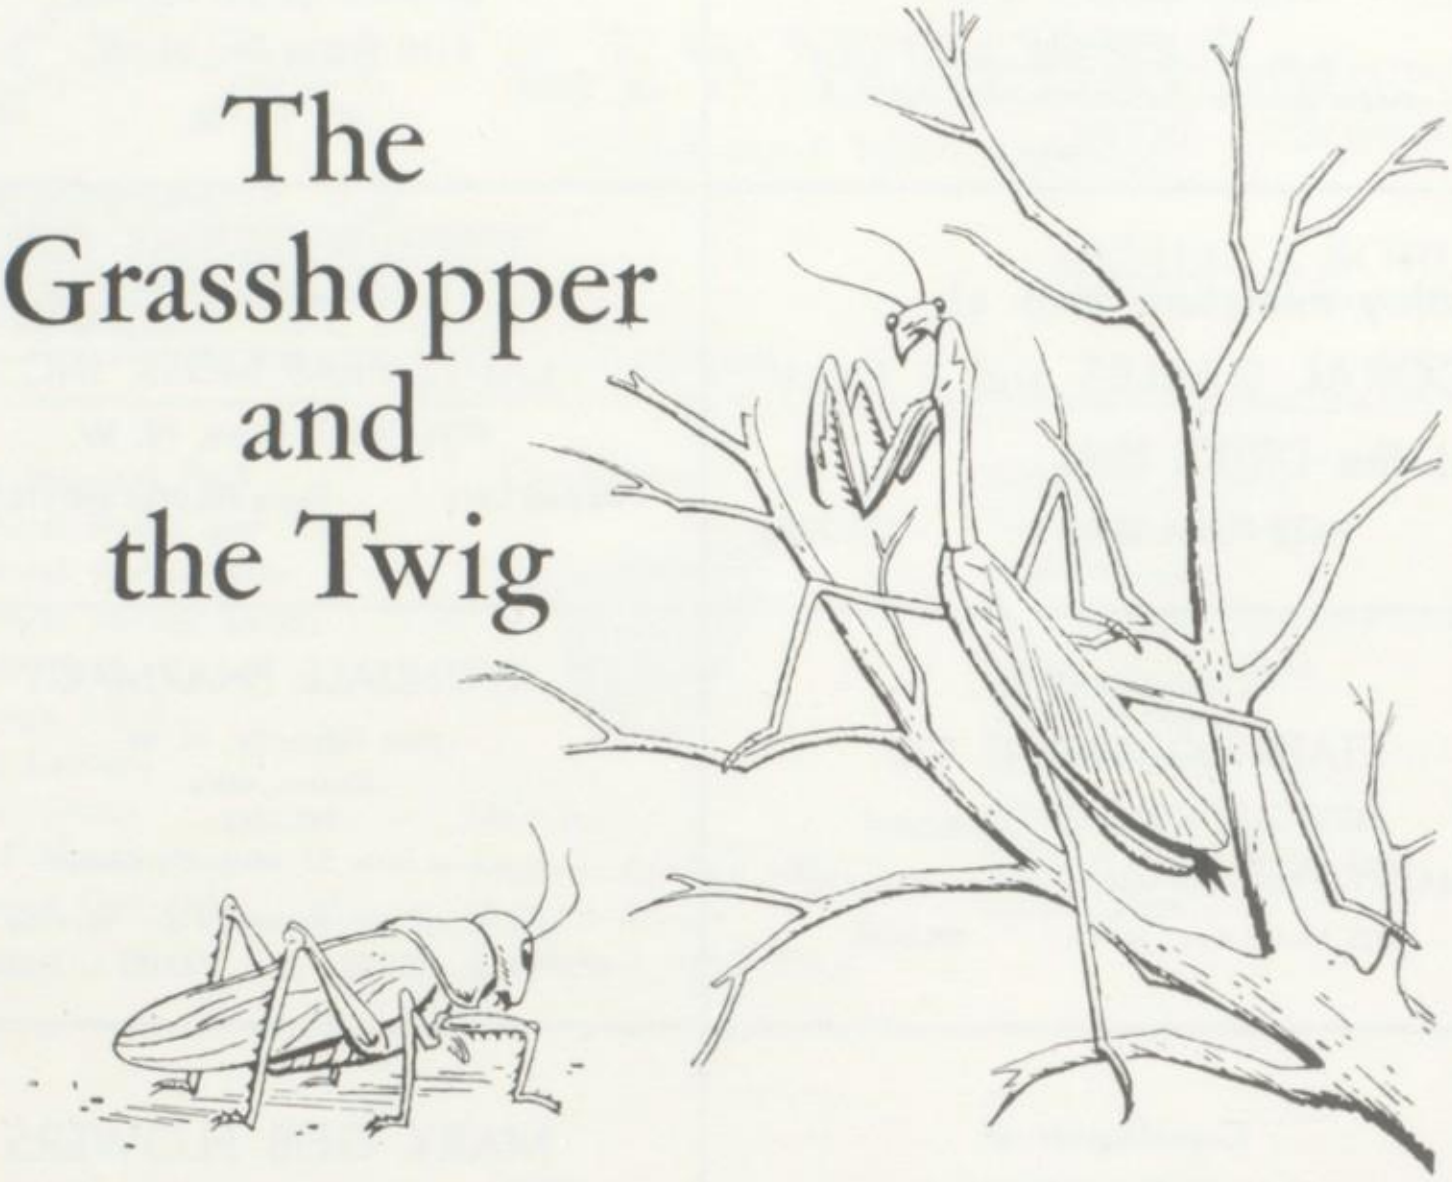
The Grasshopper and the Twig



TO the bulging eyes of the grasshopper it was just a spray of green young twigs, full of sap and spring.

The next instant one of the twigs lunged forward. The 'hopper was clamped in a pair of vise-like arms. The Praying Mantis, twig-shaped hunter of the insect world, began to dine.

Natural camouflage is not restricted to insects. Human "twigs", too, disguise their deadliness. Communists look and act and talk just like other people.

If we as individuals cannot penetrate the Communists' disguise, how can we possibly combat them?

The answer is so simple it is widely ignored. We can keep them out of positions of trust, where they can really harm us—simply by being in those positions of trust ourselves.

It means that many more of us must make the same kind of extra effort the Communists willingly make. It means ordinary citizens getting into active politics, joining civic organizations, doing the jobs the Communists would like to do.

It means work, no two ways about it. But if true Americans don't do it, Communists gladly will.

And it's work by which we could provide a powerful defense against our perfectly-disguised enemies, the Communists.

THE 1963 SUPPLEMENT

Graduation

Seniors line up and nervously await the long march into the auditorium.

After many practices the final processional to "Pomp and Circumstance" is begun.

Our final goal—receiving the diploma.

The auditorium was filled to capacity to see the graduation of one of Jackson's best classes.

Graduation

Miss Linda Ulm, co-valedictorian, thanked many people who have made this graduation possible.

"Honor is a chain with many links," the class motto, was one of the fine points brought out by the other co-valedictorian, Ronnie Emhoff.

The new president of Kent State University, Dr. Robert I. White, gave a message entitled "The Old and the New."

Ronnie Emhoff, President of the class of 1963, presents Duane Hoverkamp, President of the new senior class, the plaque.

Commencement

Mr. Rader introduces the commencement speaker, Dr. Robert White.

Co-Valedictorians

Linda Ulm was named one of the co-valedictorians of the Class of 1963 for maintaining a 4. average throughout her high school years. She was named the Outstanding Senior of 1963 by the Administration and Faculty on the basis of co-operation, character, courtesy, and civic leadership. They presented her with a watch. She was also presented the choir award for her faithful service and leadership.

Ronnie Emhoff, named the other co-valedictorian, also maintained a 4. scholastic average. Ronnie served as the President of the Senior Class and President of the Band. He was also voted by his classmates as the senior boy Most Likely to Succeed.

Salutatorian

Janet Quass, the Salutatorian with a 3.96 average, was elected by the Senior Class as the senior girl Most Likely to Succeed. She was also the winner of this year's D.A.R. Good Citizen's Contest. The two highest girls out of 7 qualifying, competed in a test over history and government. In addition she served as Editor-in-Chief of the yearbook.

Senior Awards

TOM ALTLAND

ARIAN FOUNDATION MUSIC AWARD

Tom Altland was presented the National Arian Foundation Music Award for his cooperation and musicianship. Requirements for this award are: above average music performance, attendance, and personal habits along with scholastic standing. Tom has been a member of the Senior Band for four years and has played his trumpet at many activities. He plays seven instruments and is a member of a combo called "The Magnificent Seven." He has also participated in music contests, has been a member of the Malone College Concert Band, Northwest Statewide Select Band, Stark County Select Band, Kent State All Star Band, and has served as a student director of Jackson Band.

SANDY GRAYBILL

HOMEMAKER OF TOMORROW

Sandy Graybill was the winner of the 1963 Homemaker of Tomorrow Contest from Jackson. She received this title and pin for achieving the highest score on a written examination given to all Senior Girls.

VIOLET BROOKS

THE CRISCO TROPHY

The Crisco Trophy is given to an outstanding, four-year Home Economics student. This year the trophy was awarded to Violet Brooks by Miss Mary McCoy, Home Economics teacher.

THE JOHN PHILIP SOUSA AWARD

The recipient of the John Philip Sousa Award for 1963 is Danny Ardelean. This award is presented for outstanding work to a male member of the Band. Danny has played in the Jackson Band for four years and has been a student director. He plays the Baritone Saxophone and the Alto Clarinet. He has also played piano at several high school assemblies. He has been a member of the All Northern Ohio Select Band and also was a member of the All District Select Band and the Malone College Select Band.

DANNY ARDELEAN

Junior-Senior Prom

Sue Wright and her escort, Bill Howenstine, Linda Cooley, Bill Gongloff, and Carol Kroeger enter Shady Hollow Country Club, May 3, for the Junior-Senior Prom.

Barb Johnson, Tom Altland, Jackie Brumbaugh, Bill Hanes, Chris Gaul, and Danny Ardelean stop to admire the decorations which carried out the theme "Paris au Printemps" (Paris in the Springtime).

Mike McCormick lights the candle as John Kunge, Ted Sima, John Boerner, Elaine Martin, Mike's date, Mike and Carol Seifert look on.

"Paris au Printemps"

Breadsticks and wine bottles add atmosphere to the French theme. John Boerner, Joyce Savchenko, John Fierstos, Sandy Graybill.

As usual, Jim Burger makes someone else, here Joy Rummins, do all the work!

Mrs. Lininger, Mrs. Rohrbaugh, and Mr. Rohrbaugh seem to be enjoying the refreshments.

Junior Class Play

"Cheaper by the Dozen"

Joe Scales, alias Jeff Simon, leads some of the Gilbreth family in a well-known school cheer.

"Cheaper by the Dozen," a true story of a family with twelve children living in the Roaring Twenties Era, was presented by the Junior Class and directed by Miss Rutter and her assistant, Jeana Mackley, on April 19 and 20.

The Gilbreth family is headed by a stern but loving father, an efficiency expert, who applies his time-saving techniques to raising his dozen children. But when he tries to convince his seventeen-year-old daughter Anne that boys, silk stockings, make-up, etc., are a waste of time, he gets absolutely nowhere, and a series of humorous and heart-warming events follows. The play is brought to a tragic climax when Dad, although he has been warned about his bad heart, departs for Europe to make a speech on efficiency, a trip from which he and his family know he will never return.

Miss Brill tests Anne to see if she is prepared for an early graduation.

Choir Musical

Li'l Abner

On March 28 and 29 the Jackson High Choirs, directed by Mr. Alexander Lewis, presented the famous Broadway musical, "Li'l Abner."

When Li'l Abner agrees to let Daisy Mae catch him in the Sadie Hawkins Day race, she is overjoyed. However, several complications, including the proposed dropping of an atom bomb on Dogpatch, Yokumberry Tonic, and a certain millionaire named General Bullmoose, interfere. But all's well that ends well, and in the end, although there is some doubt as to who's marrying whom, Daisy Mae and Li'l Abner finally do get married.
